13 Submitted to His Highness.

The pay of the Senior Surgeon and ex-officio Sanitary Commissioner has to be fixed when the offices are held by a local officer.

2. Dr. P.S. Achyuta Rao was allowed to draw a consolidated pay of Rs.1,400 when he was officiating as Senior Surgeon. It is proposed that his pay on confirmation be the same. The pay of the other Heads of major Departments like the Revenue, Police and Excise is fixed at Rs.1,400 per mensem.

3. The Second Councillor has approved of the accompanying draft of Government Order fixing the pay of the Senior Surgeon and ex-officio Sanitary Commissioner when held by a local officer at Rs.1,400 per mensem. The First Councillor notes that Mr. P.S. Achyuta Rao has drawn his salary of Rs.1,400 as acting Senior Surgeon and that it would be hard to lessen his emoluments after confirming him in the office. And, at the same time refers to his previous notes on the subject in which (I write from mere recollection), he proposed that it need not be more than Rs.1,200, (a progressive scale, I think, it was rising from Rs.800 to Rs.1,200).
